How to start your class with a BANG!?

The end of the week classes

TEACHERFUL

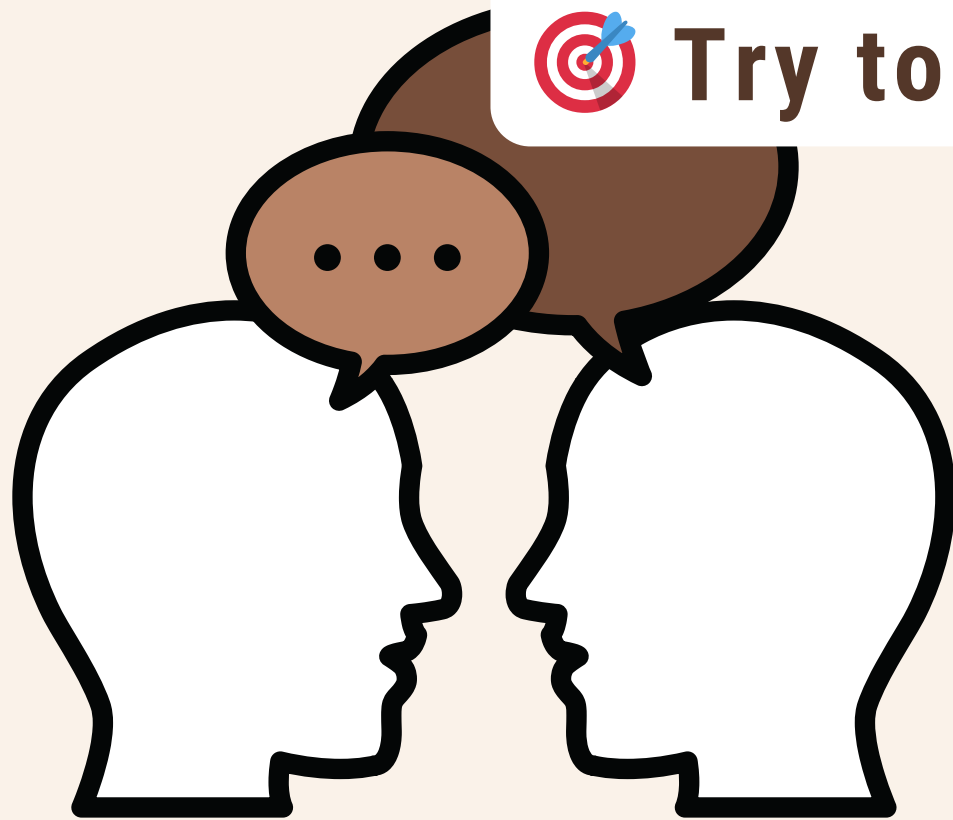

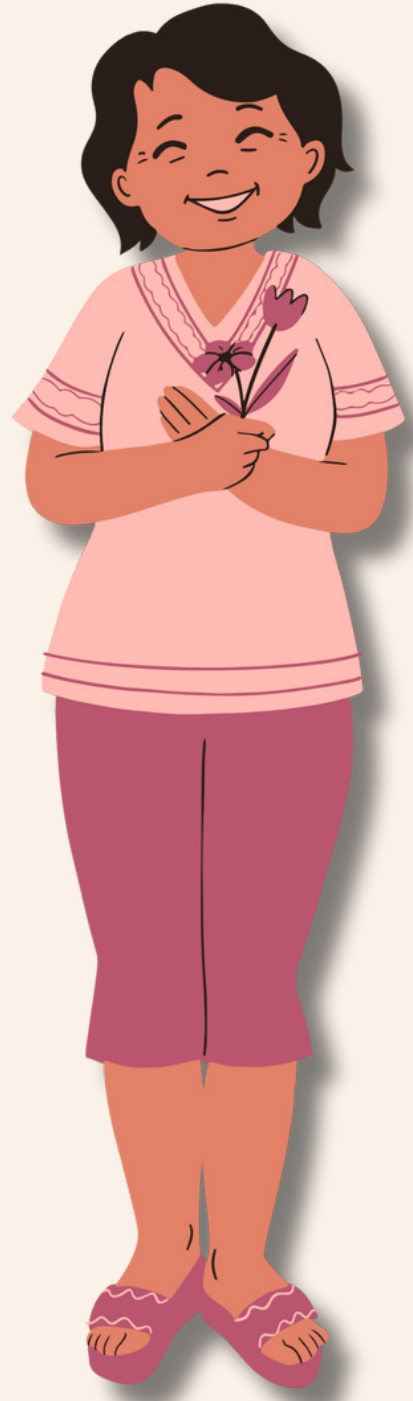

Imagine you're having a conversation with different people in your life. Your task: Answer the question:

“What are your plans for the weekend?”

in a way that suits each person’s relationship with you.

 Try to adjust your tone, level of detail, and formality for each person:

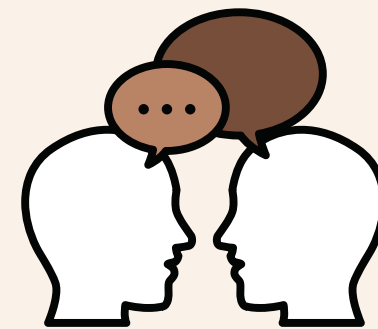

1 Your mum

She probably wants details!
How much would you share?

2 Your sibling
Casual and maybe a little teasing?

3 Your ex Awkward or polite? Keep it short or overshare?

4 Your boss
Keep it professional?
What would you mention?

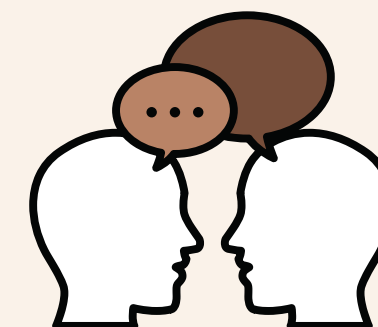

5 A workmate who hates you
Do you keep it neutral or throw in a little sass?

6 Your best friend

Time for the unfiltered version!
What do you really say?

7 Your elderly neighbour Do you keep it simple and polite?

8 Your teacher

Do you give a vague answer or get into a deep conversation?
