

How to start your class with a ?

The beginning of the week classes.

TEACHERFUL

Imagine you're having a conversation with different people in your life.

Your task:

Answer the question “How was your weekend?” in a way that suits each person’s relationship with you.

Try to adjust your:

- tone,

-level of detail, and

-formality for each person:

1 Your mum

She probably wants details!
How much would you share?

2 Your sibling
Casual and maybe a little teasing?

3 Your ex

Awkward or polite? Keep it short or overshare?

4 Your boss
Keep it professional?
What would you mention?

5 A workmate who hates you
Do you keep it neutral or throw in a little sass?

6 Your best friend

Time for the unfiltered version!
What do you really say?

7 Your elderly neighbour Do you keep it simple and polite?

8 Your teacher

Do you give a vague answer or get into a deep conversation?
